Pennsylvania Honors Non-Resident Permits/Licenses From the States They Honor.

How to Apply for A Permit

It is very simple to obtain a Pennsylvania Concealed Carry Permit/License. Just take your Pennsylvania Drivers License or State ID. Names, Addresses and Phone numbers of two references and your check book and go to the Sheriff's Office in the county you reside. Tell them you wish to apply for a Permit/License to Carry a Concealed Weapon. Fill out the application and pay the fee. PA Code 18 Pa.C.S. § 6109 states the total for all costs is to be $20. The Sheriff has 45 days to issue the permit/license or deny it.

Your Permit/License is valid for 5 years.

Note: Some Sheriff's require another form of ID along with Drivers License. Some have Residency Requirement periods up to 90 days. Some require References to be residences of the county you apply in. Some have put other stipulations on issuing Licenses to Carry. Check with your local Sheriff's Office for more information.

Non-Resident Permits

It is simple to get a PA Non-Resident Permit/License. Starting 3/31/11 PA will no longer issue by mail. You www.handgunlaw.us have to make a trip to PA to apply. If they do not issue it to you in your short visit they will mail you the permit/license when it is approved.

Completed and Signed Application must be accompanied by the following:

1. A photo copy of a license to carry a firearm (concealed carry permit) from your home state if that state has a concealed carry law. If from IL you should bring your FOID Card.
2. A photo copy of your Driver's License.
3. Names, Addresses and Phone #'s of 2 references.
4. $20.00 to $24.00 fee for five year license and out of state processing.

Note: You have to have a permit from your home state if your home state issue permits. Unless you are from Illinois, DC or Vermont you have to have a permit from your home state. If your state is too restrictive and won't issue you a permit you can not obtain a Non-Resident Pennsylvania Permit/License. Some Sheriff's will not issue to non residents and/or have other stipulations to issue to non-residents. Check with the Sheriff's Dept before you appear to apply.

Do "No Gun Signs" Have the Force of Law?

"NO"

"Handgunlaw.us highly recommends that you not enter a place that is posted "No Firearms" no matter what the state laws read/mean on signage. We recommend you print out the No Guns = No Money Cards and give one to the owner of the establishment that has the signage." As responsible gun owners and upholders of the 2nd Amendment we should also honor the rights of property owners to control their own property even if we disagree with them."

"No Firearm" signs in Pennsylvania have no force of law unless they are posted on property that is specifically mentioned in State Law as being off limits to those with a Permit/License to Carry. If you are in a place not specifically mentioned in the law that is posted and they ask you to leave, you must leave. If you refuse to leave then you are breaking the law and can be charged. Even if the property is not posted and you are ask to leave you must leave. Always be aware of the possibility that responding Police Officers who may have been called without your knowledge and may not know the laws on trespass etc. could arrest you even if you are within the law.
